Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; and yet I say to you that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Now if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' For after all these things the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you. Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.

Matthew 6:28-34

They don't grow everywhere.

They do grow in Texas.

They don't grow in concrete, even in Texas.

But alongside the ribbons of Texas backroads and highways you will find Texas Bluebonnets.

Sunday drives after church, seem to be a thing of the past.

That's just one of the many meaningful traditions that today's generation hasn't found time for.

How about a ride after church this Sunday to see the Bluebonnets and catch up on a little family time.

Maybe a stop at Dairy Queen could be arranged.

Let It Be So

How can a young man cleanse his way?
By taking heed according to Your word.
With my whole heart I have sought You;
Oh, let me not wander from Your commandments!
Your word I have hidden in my heart,
That I might not sin against You.
Blessed are You, O LORD!
Teach me Your statutes.
With my lips I have declared
All the judgments of Your mouth.
I have rejoiced in the way of Your testimonies,
As much as in all riches.
I will meditate on Your precepts,
And contemplate Your ways.
I will delight myself in Your statutes;
I will not forget Your word.

Psalm 119:9-16

Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter:

Fear God and keep His Commandments,
For this is the whole duty of man.
For God will bring every work into judgment,
Including every secret thing,
Whether it be good or whether it be evil.

Ecclesiastes 12:13

Before I was afflicted I went astray,
but now have I kept Thy word.

Psalm 119:67
