The Preamble To The Constitution Of The United States

We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States Of America.

I'm ashamed that I have never studied the Constitution. I did memorize the Preamble about 65 years ago. Those were the days when we recited the pledge to the flag and said the Lord's Prayer every day at school. We were taught, and rightly so, that those things were sacred. Things have sure changed.

Remember When?

There are still a few places that do teach respect for the flag and what it stands for. Very few.

I pledge allegiance to the Bible, God's Holy Word.....
I pledge allegiance to the Christian flag and to the Savior
I pledge allegiance to the flag of The United States Of America.....under God.....

As a nation, where are we today? It's obvious that we are not "one nation under God." We are a very divided nation, and very obviously not "under God." We have forgotten our God, our Creator, our Redeemer, and our Friend. We have begun to see the results. Nothing less than a spiritual revival can save us.

What About The Unpardonable Sin?

What Is It?

The scriptures teach that there is a sin that is unpardonable (Mark 3:28-29). The scriptures also say that He will forgive "all sin" (1 John 1:7). How can this be?

When we understand that we have sinned, and we then repent, He then forgives (Acts 3:19, 2 Corinthians 7:10). 1 John 1:7 says, "If we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin." Notice that we must be walking in the "light" to be cleansed from all sin. Our goal should be to walk in the "light" - in the truth. The blood of Jesus will then work for us to cleanse us from "all sin".

But what if we have spoken badly of the Holy Spirit - blasphemed the Holy Spirit? Can we repent and be forgiven? Can we begin to walk in the light? If you have truly blasphemed the Holy Spirit, it's my understanding that you will not want to repent or walk in the light. If you truly desire to be saved God's way - I believe you can. If you truly desire to be saved God's way, that's a good sign that you've not blasphemed the Holy Spirit.

To blaspheme means to, "speak evil of". To speak evil of the Holy Spirit is the unpardonable sin (Mark 3:28-29). As with any other sin, for there to be guilt the sin must be committed with understanding and defiance. It is willful determined opposition to the Holy Spirit. It is willful determined opposition to His plan to bring salvation to mankind.- the way of the cross.

We have all opposed God. That's why the "cross" was necessary. Many have even opposed the Holy Spirit and His bringing "the way of the cross" to mankind. Consider the Apostle Paul

(1 Timothy 1:12-13). He greatly opposed God's way, persecuting, imprisoning, and consenting to the death of Christians. Yet he did what he did in ignorance. When he received the truth, he became a great proponent of the truth. Although he was a blasphemer, he did it in ignorance, therefore it was not the unpardonable sin.

Could it be that only those who have been saved; those who known "the way of the cross", could then with understanding commit the unpardonable sin of blaspheming the Holy Spirit? To know this great plan of God - the way of the cross - and to then oppose it, has to be a most grievous sin.

There are people who, because of some idle thought or word that they have had, think that they have blasphemed the Holy Spirit, having committed the unpardonable sin. Satan, our adversary, very probably has convinced them of such. They may never shake loose from his lies. A better understanding of the way's of God may have saved them from such a trap.

Know this, that God loves you. He suffered greatly, so that you could be saved. If you want to be saved and are willing to come His way, you can come; you can be saved.

Repentance and faith in the work that Jesus did on the cross, will save whosoever.
